The College by Numbers

UVa offers over 50 majors in the College and over two dozen graduate programs and students can declare up to two majors and one minor.

Fall 2013 Enrollment: ~10,500 undergraduates

Spring 2013 Admission: UVa made offers to 29% of its 22,364 applicants

Academic Requirements

- Students typically complete at least 120 credits across four years
- In addition to their major requirements, students must complete area requirements across the liberal arts spectrum as well as writing and foreign language requirements

Scholar Programs in the College

These programs are not scholarships, but provide students with various academic benefits.

Echols Scholars: 850 members (8.5% of College); chosen students have excelled academically

College Science Scholars: handful of talented students dedicated to science research; no special application; students must major or minor in one of the sciences, maintain 3.4 GPA

College Art Scholars: students must submit an Arts Supplement, must major/minor in Studio Art, Drama, Music, or Dance

Students must declare a major before their fifth semester. Many majors are interdisciplinary and students can even design their own majors if their interests are not reflected in any current program.

Many opt to complete a “Distinguished Majors Program” which requires a fourth-year thesis in their major subject.
